

--The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

--I am a stay-at-home mom and since I have been on the no call list I have received almost no telemarketing calls which frees me up to do the things I need to be doing with my kids.

--I believe that we pay for our phone service for our use not for the use of companies to solicit business.